NUMB. 3254

MONDAY, AUGUST 6, 1744.

Dantzick, August 1.

H. E. Marquis de la Chetardie, who arrived here Yesterday, remains incognito, and takes upon him the Name of Baron d'Andrie. He appears excessively melancholy, and sometimes breaks out into such passionate Exclamations, as seem to border upon Madness. He charges M. Dallon with betraying him; but the Truth of the Matter is, he betrays himself. M. Belleisle foretold his Fate long ago. He said Chetardie said he is one of Fortune's Favourites; he said him without Merit, and when he falls, he will be without Resource. He said this at Frankfurt, when the Imperial Court expected great Things from Chetardie's Negotiation. It is believed this Phœnix of the North will set out To-morrow for Frankfurt on the Oder; and indeed he does well to travel so, for where-ever he comes, People of all Sorts look upon him as if he had the Plague. Count Rosenberg, Secretary from the Queen of Hungary to her Imperial Majesty of all the Russias, pass'd thro' this City on the 17th ult. in his Way to Moscow.

Stockholm, July 17. Last Sunday Evening the King arrived, unexpected, at Carlsberg, from his Progress to Upsal. Yesterday arriv'd an Express for General Keith, from Moscow, which was immediately forwarded to him at Romanoff. On Wednesday last, the 28th ult., there was a numerous Court at Carlsberg, to which his Swedish Majesty on his late Return from his Progress to Gottenburg. General Keith, with the Troops under his Command, sail'd from Romanoff two Days ago.

Berlin, August 5. The military Preparations making here at present, surpass very far any Thing that has been known during this Reign. His Majesty has fix'd the Number of Wagons, and Quantity of Baggage allow'd to every Regiment, and has recommended to the General Officers Modesty in this Respect; and observed the other Night, at Supper, that there would be no Balls or Operas in his Camp. A Train of heavy Artillery is on the Road to Silesia; and we are sending prodigious Quantities of military Stores to Breslaw by Water. All the Troops that are not already in Motion, have Orders to be ready to march in 24 Hours. Four Regiments of Foot are to make the Campaign; as are the Grenadiers, but not in their laced Uniform. According to the last Advices from Silesia, they have lately suffered very much by a Tempest, it being the greatest that has been known in those Parts for these 20 Years. Some Days before (the 22d of last Month) this Storm fell on the City of Dresden, and two Soldiers were killed, and others wounded, by one Clap of Thunder.

Hanover, August 7. His most Serene Highness the Elector of Cologne arriv'd this Afternoon at Herenhausen, where he was receiv'd by the principal Lords of our Embassy with profound Respect. He sees a French Company in the Theatre in the Gardens this Evening, and resumes his Journey To-morrow for Hamburg. It is known, that there is something as mysterious in his Majesty's Voyage, as in the military Preparations which are making in Prussia, and which are actually beyond Description; his Prussian Majesty having caused almost all the young Men in his vast Dominions to be enrolled. Some seem to threaten equally Poland and Saxony; some People believe, that a fresh Invasion is to be made on Bohemia; which, however, gains no Credit here, because we see the Regular Forces in that Kingdom daily into Bavaria. The Elector of Cologne is consider'd by every Body as an Austrian; and it is very well known, he has made the utmost Efforts at Frankfurt to detach the Imperial Court from its Dependence on France. It is likewise believed, that the Bishop of Metz is in the same Sentiments; and it is hoped, that by their Influence, the Emperor will be at last brought to the German Interest.

Naples, July 15. Upon the Arrival of a Detachment, commanded by M. de Vargas, in the Abruzzo, the Enemy retir'd to the Borders of the Tronto. The Cities of Aquila, Teramo, and other Towns, have again submitted to the King. The Tribunal of Teramo has been dissolved, and the Ministers of Aquila ordered into Confinement in the Forts of Pescara. Brigadier Litale, Governor of Castle del Ovo, has been appointed President of that Province; and a new Sett of Ministers is on the Point of being nominated. M. Vargas has put the City of Aquila under Contribution for the Maintenance of the Troops. The Fiscal of Teramo has been ordered into Confinement at Civitella del Tronto. There are none of the Enemy's Troops in any Part of the Kingdom.

Florence, July 21. On the 15th the Queen of Naples was deliver'd of a Princess at Gaeta, where Cardinal Spinelli, the Archbishop of Naples, and many of the Nobility, were invited to assist. On this Account, great Rejoicings were made in the Neapolitan and Spanish Camp at Veletri. On the 17th arriv'd at Pisa, from the Romagna, about 300 Horses, out of the King of Naples's Stud, which the Austrian Hussars had lately seized in the Province of Anagni. They are to remain at Pisa till further Orders. M. de Gages lately ordered 6000 Bomb Shells to be brought to his Camp, from the Presidium of Tuscany, finding that he could not annoy the Austrians with his Cannon; tho, by Accounts from the latter, the Bombs do very little Harm. Nothing material has occurred in either Army. There is Advice here, of Commo're Long's being arriv'd, with the Squadron under his Command, off Civita Vecchia.

Vienna, July 29. Above 40 battering Cannons have been ordered, and are actually upon the Road from Fribourg to Prince Charles's Army in Alsacia.

Hambourg, August 4. Letters from Dresden bring Advice, that the Saxon Troops had received Orders to incamp the several Regiments separately, by the 1st of this Month.

Camp of Avelghem, August 5. Since our passing the Schelde on Friday last, we have been obstructed in our March by the great Number of Inclosures, being obliged to cut the Roads, and make Bridges for the March of the Lines and Columns before we can move from our Camp. This has retarded us one Day, but Orders are given for our marching To-morrow, and placing our Right at Espierre, and our Left to extend towards Estainbourg or Nechin, as the Situation of the Ground, or the Convenience of Water, shall make it advisable. Our Army consists of 69 Battalions, and 112 Squadrons; the Regiments from Mons, Tournay, and Oudenarde, having joined us the Day after we pass'd the Schelde.

Brussels, August 6. By a Letter from an Officer in the Austrian Army, dated at Haguenau the 31st of July, there is Advice, That by the Acquisition of Haguenau, Prince Charles is become Master of all the Lower Alsacia, and in a Situation to prevent the Junction of the French Succours with M. Coigny; and that both the Franche Comte, and Part of Burgundy, were open to the Incursions of the Austrian Hussars. Letters from Paris mention the taking of Chateau Dauphin by the French and Spaniards, with the Loss of 4000 Men, and a great Number of Officers; but a more authentick Account is expected. On the 3d Instant the Center of the Allied Army in Flanders was encamped at Avelghem, between Courtrai and Tournay; and the Quarter Masters were to reconnoitre the next Morning, in order to chuse another Camp. This Court has received Advice, that the Count de Saxe has ordered three Men out of each Company of the Army to Courtrai, and that they work hard in fortifying that Place.

Brussels, August 10. Since the 6th, the Allied Army has been marching towards Tournay; and the Austrian Hussars have, we hear, taken Post at Lannoy, in the Territory of Lille. Upon this Motion, several Parties of French Troops, which lay at Cisoign, and other Villages about Lannoy, broke up immediately. Some of them marched to Lille, and the rest rejoined Count de Saxe's Army. The French continue in their Lines behind the Lys, and fortify Courtrai with great Diligence; but if the Allied Army continues to advance, it is the general Opinion, that the Count de Saxe must quit his Lines, in order to take care of the French Frontier; and that thereupon a Battle must ensue. There are Letters in Town which say, that Prince Lobkowitz has been obliged to break up his Camp. We have no authentick Accounts of Prince Charles's Motions, since his taking Possession of the Lines of Haguenau; but Yesterday private Letters came in from Mayence, which say M. Coigny has quitted Strasbourg, and marched towards Colmar; and that the Prince was advancing towards Schellstadt. General Pratorius arriv'd here the 7th at Night, and set out early the next Morning for Tournay.

Paris, August 3. There is an Account from Nantes, of the 28th of last Month, that two English Men of War, with two Frigates and two Gallies, having appear'd, upon the 15th, off St. Nezaire, the People there had been in the utmost Consternation. The Alarm-Bell was rung in all the Parishes along the Coast, and great Numbers assembled together; but the English disappeared that Night, without having made any Descent, or committed any Manner of Hostilities. We hear from Toulon, that the English Fleet, consisting of 23 Ships of the Line, besides Frigates, Bomb-Ketches, &c. is returned to the Islands of Hierres, and keeps to good a Look-out upon the Coast of Provence, that none of our Trading Vessels dare venture out of Port. The Ships that were to have sail'd from Toulon to meet Admiral Torres, were got into the outward Road, when the English Fleet returned; but, thereupon, they put back into the inner Road, where they are likely to continue, being in a manner block'd up. They write from Brest of the 20th of last Month, that upon the 18th, a Squadron of 16 Men of War sail'd from thence, under the Command of M. de Rockambaut and Nesmond, but to what Latitude they were bound, is hitherto a Secret.

Hague, August 7. The Letters that came in this Morning bring nothing new nor material from any of the Armies. That of Prince Charles was on the 31st past, still at Haguenau, nor was it at that Time known there with Certainty, to what Place M. Coigny was retired with the Bulk of the Army. The King of Sardinia, after the Loss of the Post of Chateau Dauphin, seems, by the freshest Advices from those Parts, to have assembled as many of his Forces as he could get together at St. Pierre in the Valley of Vraita, whilst M. Pallavicini, after the Entrance of the Enemy by the Barricades, and through the Valley of Straz, is said to have done the same with the rest of the Piedmontese Forces under the Cannon of Demont.

Hague, August 8. Her Royal Highness the Princess, and his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, set out this Day for Rotterdam, in their Way to Breda.

Hague, August 11. The Confederate Army entered upon French Ground last Saturday, and extended its Left to the Abbey of Cisoign, where Count Maurice of Nassau occupies the same Quarters which were so lately honour'd with the Residence of the French King. By the present Position of the Army, it is in the Center of the French Fortresses, none of which are completely garison'd. M. Twickle arriv'd here last Night. We hear that the greatest Part of the French Regiments, which, upon the 19th of last Month forced the Inclosures of la Tour du Pont and Bellino, near Chateau Dauphin, had entirely lost their Officers; that of the three Battalions of the Regiment of Poitou that were engaged, only 300 had escap'd; that all the other Regiments had lost in Proportion, and that M. de Givry, who commanded them, had received a dangerous Wound in his left Knee. There are Letters from France which mention, that there has been a great Desertion and Sickness amongst the Troops detached from Flanders to Alsace.

HOME PORTS.

Bristol, August 2. We have just now received an Express from Falmouth, advising, that Capt. Wingfield, in the Southwell Privateer, has retaken the following Ships; viz. the Duke of Argyle, Ludlow, the Martin Galley, Dale, and the William, Sloop, all of, and for this Place, from Virginia; he has also taken the Happy Union, a French Ship, 250 Tons, 12 Guns, and 40 Men; on board of which are Letters relating to the French Squadron bound from Cadiz to St. Mils, which are sent to the Lords of the Admiralty. The above retaken Prizes are all carried into Falmouth.

Breakfasting to begin at Nine o'Clock. The Evening Entertainments to begin at Four, and continue till Eight at Night. Proper Cooks are provided every Day in the Week, and plenty of Fish; the Doors free, except Monday. The Gates at Hummerton and Temple-Mills will be Toll-free.

From the London Gazette.

Admiralty-Office, August 3. His Majesty's Sloops the Hound and Vulture, being in Sight of Goree on the 29th past, with the Trade under their Convoy, bound to Rotterdam, the Hound, Capt. Gordon, stood after a Snow, which proved to be a French Privateer of ten Carriage Guns, and nine Swivels, and 81 Men, which had been three Days out of Dunkirk. She engaged the Hound for an Hour and half, and then struck, having five Men killed, and several mortally wounded. Captain Gordon also re-took a Ship which the Privateer had just taken.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S BALSAMICK STYPTICK,

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury-Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a mo-surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Piles; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates; therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting the Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Excellent Piece, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Diseases of the Body, &c. prefers Eaton's Styptic to Helvetius's other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows:—Every one knows the agglutinating Quality of Sweet Blood, and I apprehend it is to this, that Eaton's Styptic owes its so mild, folding Efficacy.—It is more mild, substantial, and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparations, and more to patch a Hole, or glew up a Rupture, or to give a Ballast to the acid and inflam'd flowing Blood of the Patient. I say, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great Worth and Candor, who has great Opportunities of dealing in such Cases, by his Practice in Midwifery. See p. 182.
